

Editor

We're looking for an editor with a keen interest in branded content creation and social media to join the ITCH team – this is a permanent position.

This is a great opportunity for someone with an editing background who wants to gain more experience, get involved with a fast growing, young company & help produce creative and corporate films for web and TV. You will be helping to create social media content for our own channels and work on client projects.

We have a work hard, relaxed culture at ITCH and we're looking for someone who will fit in with the team, generate ideas and approach filmmaking with a creative outlook!

Skills required:

Most importantly you need to be a quick learner but skills in the following would be beneficial:

- Premier Pro CC
- Audition
- After Effects / Graphics knowledge
- Production workflow
- Photoshop
- HD codecs and workflows

This job is great for you if you:

- Are a good storyteller
- Have a keen interest in social media
- Love filmmaking & are passionate about creative video production
- Are self-starting and driven
- Want to learn more and want to delve into editing software such as After Effects
- Can work quickly and to deadlines
- Are a great communicator & have a sense of humour!

Salary based on experience.

We also have a great perks scheme at ITCH including:

- Competitive bonus structure
- Gym membership contribution
- Team lunches!
- Development allowance (courses, training, etc)
- Subscription to wellness apps
- 25 + days holiday per year (excluding bank holidays) plus 1 extra per year for each year your with ITCH.

We will also buy you the occasional coffee & maybe a doughnut. Also we're a family of legends. If you are one too – this is the place for you.

Email: hello@itchmedia.com